UNIT 4 ON THE PHONE

6 Read the text.

Hello, I am Mia. I am very excited because I will turn 18 next week. I have some predictions about my future.

First, I think I will get a driver's license. I am very happy. I will drive a car and go on vacation by the lake with my best friend, Diana. Diana is taking the university entrance exam next month, and she is a little bit worried. I am sure she will start the university next year. She will be very surprised and happy when she learns that I am planning a vacation for us.

I want to learn a foreign language because I love communicating with people from different countries. I will probably help people in need in foreign countries after I graduate from the university. I feel sad about the people in need.

I will probably get married 15 years later and have a baby 20 years later because there are lots of things I want to do before getting married.

A. Look at the pictures and put a tick (✓) to Mia's predictions about her future.

B. Answer the questions.
