Read the news about a survey.

Hello, I'm Sandra Finick, and you are watching Channel One. Today I'm reporting the results of a survey. Almost 1,000 Turkish teenagers joined it. According to the survey results, 18% of the teenagers save money. They say they can buy new clothes with that money. 24% of the teenagers say that they always follow the rules at school and outside the school. Others say that rules are boring, and they don't want to follow them. 21% of the teenagers take history and tradition classes because they find them interesting. 12% of the teenagers in the survey prefer reading the news online. Others like touching the pages of a newspaper. 19% of the teenagers set goals for themselves, and they are mostly educational goals. 6% of the teenagers prefer commenting on trending topics, and their favorite application is Twitter. They love sharing everything online; their videos, photos and opinions about the news. This is all for today. Thank you for watching us.

A. Read the sentences of some teenagers that take part in the survey. Look at the graph. Find the group each teenager is in according to the sentence he/she says.
